The production of our Kombucha and Kefir cultures takes place in a professional environment with proper rooms accredited for food production. These production rooms are subject to legal regulations and inspections by the public order office of the city of Frankfurt am Main. Wellness-Drinks is proud to be one of only a few German providers who sell Kombucha and Kefir (Milk Kefir, Water Kefir) officially with a business registration. We are not selling our cultures in our "free time" nor do we advertise our products "privately" or as a "hobby". Only this way ensures that our production is regularly being checked by the responsible and independent state bodies. Responsibility is taken by the official veterinarian service of the public order office of the city of Frankfurt am Main. The service officials conduct frequent checks in our food processing facility and minutely advise us on our hygiene concepts.
